Terms and Conditions of Certification

The attendant must

- (a) follow the principles of first aid treatment as outlined in the Board's Occupational First Aid training programs that are provided to the attendant when he or she participates in the training program,
- (b) comply with the OHSR, and the other responsibilities of attendants in this standard, and
- (c) comply with any other terms and conditions provided to the attendant by the training agency when granted certification, or provided to the attendant by the Board at any other time.

Including:

The first aid certificate holder must not engage in inappropriate conduct, not restricted to but including:

- smoking while assessing or treating an injured or ill worker and/or while handling oxygen therapy equipment, or permitting others to do so;
- failure to use the assessment and injury treatment techniques outlined in first aid training courses unless conditions precluded them;
- conduct that poses an unreasonable threat to the safety and well-being of other workers or the public;
- removing themselves from being able to see or hear any summons for first aid at a workplace;
- abandonment of an injured worker after beginning assessment or treatment;
- refusal to treat an injured worker when acting as the designated attendant; or
- treating or transporting an injured worker while impaired or under the influence of drugs or alcohol.
